Booth and Personnel Information

Each Booth will have one six foot draped table and two chairs. There can be no more than two representatives at a booth.

Exhibits must be of a nature relevant to real estate investors such as Trades (contractors, plumbers, electricians, handymen, etc.) Financiers (mortgage brokers, Private Money lenders, Hard money lenders), Service Professionals (Real Estate brokers, Attorneys, CPAs, etc.) TREIA will not allow educational providers at this particular show. This includes anyone selling, books, tapes, seminars or other types of programs. There may be other venues for such in the future. TREIA reserves the right to reject participation based on type of service, booth presentation, or for any or no reason.

All exhibits will be tasteful and not include sound or mechanical devices without prior written permission. Any displays deemed by TREIA as a nuisance must be taken down immediately. Please give a brief description of your company/product, and describe your presentation materials.

Security and Liability

Exhibitors are responsible for their own booths and possessions during the hours of the Vendor Fair. Set up is from 5 PM until 6 PM. The actual fair will start after the meeting is called to order, announcements made, and any association business that needs to be addressed. The vendor fair will end at 9:30 PM. The exhibit room has to be cleared by 10:00 PM.

Upon signing the Contract to Exhibit, it is understood that the Exhibitor agrees to make no claims against the agents, members or representatives of the Triangle Real Estate Investors Association or the Raleigh Hilton Hotel for loss, theft, or destruction of goods, nor for injury to either himself/herself or employee while on Hilton property. Should any emergency arise prior to the opening of the Vendor Fair that would prevent the Vendor Fair from being held, it is expressly understood that the Triangle Real Estate Association will not be held liable for any expenses or losses incurred by exhibitors.
